What is the SEND Local Offer?

The Local Offer:

- Gives information about education, health and care services in North Lincolnshire
- Provides information about leisure activities and support groups
- Holds the information in one place
- Is clear, comprehensive and accessible
- Makes service provision more responsive to local needs and aspirations
- Is co-produced with young people, families and providers

Who is it for?

The Local Offer is for:

- Children and young people with special educational needs and / or disabilities (SEND) from 0-25 years
- Their parents and carers
- Practitioners and professionals

How will it help me?

The Local Offer will:

- Make it easier to find out what you need to know
- Help you be less dependent on other people
- Help you find the nearest and most suitable services
- Help you ask the right questions

What makes the Local Offer different?

The Local Offer is not just a directory or list of services. It:

- Helps you identify suitable support
- Helps inform decisions about resources needed
- Gives transparent information about decision making, access and eligibility for services
- Is organic and responsive to your needs

How do I get involved?

If you are a parent or carer - find out about what is available by:

- Visiting our Local Offer website www.northlincslocaloffer.com
- Viewing your education provider's SEND information report (published on their website) or by talking to your SENCO.

If you are a child or young person - you can also get involved by:

- Talking to your education provider
- Viewing their website
- Viewing our local offer website www.northlincslocaloffer.com

If you are an education provider - you must publish a SEND information report and gather the views of children and young people, their parents and carers.

If you would like to find out more or become involved in the further development of the Local Offer please contact the SEND team:
